2019 NAPEG Professional Development Symposium Sponsorship Information

NAPEG's 2019 Professional Development Symposium is quickly approaching. This year, NAPEG's Professional Development Committee has chosen the theme of "Succeeding in an Uncertain Environment". Symposium sessions will be announced in the near future.

This event brings together key professionals from all sectors to share experiences, perspectives and knowledge in Northern engineering and geoscience. NAPEG is offering you an opportunity to provide financial support for the Symposium while promoting your firm. By becoming a Symposium Sponsor, you have the chance to reach this uniquely targeted audience and demonstrate your commitment to the interests of protecting health, safety and welfare of the public and the environment, by supporting professionals' essential continuing professional development.
